Nght Report—Last night was cloudy and all. Three prisoners and one lodger were who existion house.

DRUNKEN SOLDIERS .- A number of er- from the forts below the city came here last night, got drunk and became disorderly. They engaged in rows among themselves and later, one of them who insulted a citizen was proply knocked down. About 3 o'clock the morning one of the soldiers was picked up on the streets having on only is under clothes and was locked up in the station house. A boat in which some of them came to this city was sunk in one of the docks.

WEDDING.—The nuptial ceremonies of Mr. William Wilkins and Miss Marian Witbeck were solemnized this morning at the residence of the bride, on north Patrick street, in the presence of a number of the friends of the contracting parties. Rev. Dr. F. J. Brooke, of the Second Presbyterian Church, and Rev. E. V. Regester, of the M. E. Church South, officiated. The newly-married couple left at 11:15 o'c ock for a bridal trip to Canada.

CHANGE OF LIGHT .- At the request of a number of river pilots, the light at Jones's Point light-house has been changed from white to red, and the latter color was displayed last night for the Secretary Pressure of the Secretary Pressu for the first time. The color was change in order to distinguish it from the light from the electric lamps in thicity, which can be seen by pilots at a considerable distance down the river.

COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT .- In the Circuit Court for the county which was in session last week the following business of interest to people of this city was transacted.

In the case of Crosby & Leib va. Chas. H. Hinchman; decree setting the case to be heard at Manassas, Dec. 18:b. This is the case where the Washin, ton railroad syndicate is trying to force the W., A. & F. C. Ry, to sell them their road as per alleged con-

J. R. Smoot et al., vs. E. J. Febrey debt on note; judgment given plaintiff for the sum of $195 and interest to date. In the case of the Alexandria Real Estate Trust & Title Co. vs. J. W. Gaines and J. H. Knight; proceedings to get posession of lot 4, block 10, "Rosslyn;" verdict rendered in favor of the plaintiffs, giving them the right to eject the tenants.

Washington & Southern Ry., Co. ve

Harry E. Candler; proceedings to eject the defendant from the property of the complainant company, which they claimed he had no right to occupy; verdict rendered in favor of the complainants, giving them possession of the property and fixing the damages at $250, to be paid by the defendant Candler.

FIRE IN THE COUNTY .- The dwelling of Mr. F. G. Schutt, sr, at Cherrydale, in Alex-undria county, was burned this morning be-tween 5 and 6 o'clock, together with its con-tents. The fire is said to have resulted from an oil stove.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Police Commissioners will hold their nonthly meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight. The Piedmont Convocation met at Falls Church yesterday and its session will continue through the 22d.

James Hopkins, a colored boy, seventeen years old, has developed smallpox at the Re form School in Washington. The granite coping to be used in the street ment has arrived from Georgia. Two physicians and an undertaker seen in close conversation on King street this morn-ing caused passers-by to ask pertinent ques-tions. Mr. Harry Kirk's terrier, "Dick," one of best ratters in the citv, and known by nearly every one on the wharf, died last night of old age.

The funeral of the late John A. Mills took place this evening at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. E. V. Regester. The interment was private.

Mr. E. B. Taylor, special commissioner, has sold to Dr. G. T. Klipstein a bouse and lot on the east side of Columbus street, between Wilkes and Gibbon, for $250.

A fight between two young men living in that neighborhood took place on the corner of Gibbon and Fairfax streets this morning and caused some excitement in that locality.

Mr. Geo. W. Hawxhurst has sold to his fether, Job Hawxhurst, the postoffice building at Fairfax Courthouse, and will build on his lot adjoining his residence at Falls Church at an early date.

The execution of Charles L. McUin, who was settenced to be hanged in Washington on Friday next for the murder of Robert L. Turner, in December, 1899, was yesterday postponed by Justice Clabaugh until January 11, 1901.

A concert was given at the Railroad Reading Rooms last night before a fair sized audionce. Misses Sara and Lulie Railbone, Miss Rebecca Pollard, N. Floyd Featherstone, P. F. Downey, and other local favorites, render an enjoyable programme.

The m mbers of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum held a special meeting in their hall last night. Several changes were made in the constitution and by-laws. Some of the changes made were for the benefit of the recently organized athletic association. A fair audience was present at the Opera House last night to attend the entertainment given for the benefit of the American Association of the Blind. Those who participated were blind people, and they were assisted by a Washington reader. Those who took part acquitted themselves creditably. A number of Washingtonlans were present.

A CASE IN POINT.—Success in advertising depends on the character of the advertising as well as on the merits of the article to be sold or service to be rendered. A merchant who has a special offer to make and who will take the more than two years would have gained to the article to be sold or service to be rendered. The deer hunting season in Wiscon sin has ended. It only lasted twenty days but in that time twelve hunters have been killed and the same number seriously wounded. Almost without exception these "accidents" occurred hrough the hunters being mistaken or deer by other hunters.

The body of Theresa Keating, 26 years of age, of Rochester, N. Y., was found in the yard in the rear of 127 Davis street this morning. The police say the woman had been outraged, rob bed and probably murdered. Miss Keating left her home last night, saying she was going to answer an advetisement for a servant. Owing to complete disorganization of the wire service south of here, it is im-possible to get full particulars of the destruction of yesterday's storm, but the reports which have come in show it to have been very serious at many points, a number of persons having been killed and several injured.

Elizabeth Bach, 45 years old, an inmate of the Newark, N. J., hospital for the insane, while being led to breakfast with the other inmates this morning slipped by her attend-ant and leaped to the ground from a third-story window. She struck on the pived court and was instantly killed.
